RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Juvenile Justice Research and Reform Lab, Drexel University August 2019 – Present
Philadelphia, PA. Supervisor: Naomi Goldstein, Ph.D.

- Evaluating the Philadelphia Police School Diversion Program, designed to dismantle the school-to-prison pipeline and reduce racial/ethnic disparities in school-based arrests
- Disseminating findings to juvenile justice stakeholders seeking to replicate programming
- Consulting on a Maine statewide initiative to identify juvenile justice reform needs
- Assisting in the coordination of a conference uniting national experts in juvenile justice to develop a research model and plan for facilitating justice-involved youths' return to school
- Authoring and co-authoring publications, conference presentations, and grant proposals

Disparities Research Unit, Massachusetts General Hospital
Boston, MA. Supervisor: Margarita Alegría, Ph.D.

July 2017 – July 2019

- Completed a post-doctoral fellowship in Mental Health Policy through the Harvard Medical School Department of Health Policy, funded by the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH; Award No. T32MH019733)
- Served as Project Director for mixed methods project aimed at identifying behavioral health and wellness needs of youth in four Boston-area communities using Photovoice method
- Conducted analysis of data from nationally representative surveys focused on mental health disorder prevalence and persistence in the United States and Puerto Rico
- Prepared manuscripts, presented at conferences, and assisted in grant writing efforts

Juvenile Justice Research and Reform Lab, Drexel University
Philadelphia, PA. Supervisor: Naomi Goldstein, Ph.D.

September 2010 – June 2017

Doctoral Dissertation/Coordinator, “Predictors of Youths’ Failure to Appear at Review Hearings”

- Designed research question and identified variables of interest with probation administrators
- Supervised data collection from youth probation records; cleaned and analyzed data; collaborated with juvenile probation administrators to interpret findings
- Submitting conference presentations and manuscript submissions; consulting for ongoing projects and a doctoral dissertation using data collected for this project

Master’s Thesis/Coordinator, “Predictors of Juvenile Probation Violation and Success”

- Collected data from archived records of youths placed on probation in Philadelphia
- Coordinated and supervised data collection at the Defender Association of Philadelphia
- Published two first-author journal articles and co-authored six conference posters and papers

Assessor/Research Assistant, “Miranda Rights Comprehension Project”

- Assessed comprehension of Miranda rights and intelligence in adult prisoners to collect data for use in determining assessment norms for an adult offender population
- Oversaw distribution of surveys to judges across the United States asking for professional evaluations of Miranda Rights Comprehension Instruments-II; coordinated data entry

Department of Oncology, The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia
Philadelphia, PA. Supervisor: Lamia Barakat, Ph.D.

March 2014 – June 2016

Project Coordinator, “Validating the Pediatric Research Participation Questionnaire (PRPQ) for Adolescents and Young Adults (AYA) with Cancer and their Primary Caregivers”

- Coordinated efforts to validate measure of youth and caregiver attitudes toward Phase III cancer clinical trial participation to eventually assist in providing decision making support
- Conducted interviews with young adult survivors of cancer and their caregivers to elicit feedback on existing version of measure; identified themes and made necessary changes

Project Coordinator, “Check-in About Recent Experiences and Strengths (CARES)”

- Recruited patients transitioning off treatment for cancer and parents to complete assessments identifying family resources, caregiver and patient distress, and health-related quality of life
- Supervised undergraduate and graduate student research assistants assigned to the project

Research Assistant, “Neurocognitive and Health-Related Quality of Life (HRQL) Evaluation of Children undergoing Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplant (HSCT)”

- Performed baseline and follow up neuropsychological testing of children with acute lymphoblastic leukemia or acute myeloid leukemia before and after bone marrow transplant

Child Social-Emotional Functioning Lab, Northwestern University
Evanston, IL. Supervisor: C. Emily Durbin, Ph.D.

March 2008 – June 2010

Research Assistant, “Parental Conflict and Socio-Emotional Functioning of Children”

- Examined effects of parental personality disorder symptoms on parent-child interaction behaviors between mothers, fathers, and their 3- to 6-year-old children
- Prepared participants, administered questionnaires, and executed study protocols
- Coded responsiveness of parent to child and child to parent viewing previously filmed interactions between parent and child, entered parental questionnaire data into SPSS

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Pre-doctoral Psychology Intern

July 2016 – June 2017

Emory School of Medicine/Grady Health System

Atlanta, GA. Supervisors: Eugene Farber, Ph.D., Nadine Kaslow, Ph.D.

Grady Health System Nia Project

Supervisor: Nadine Kaslow, Ph.D.

- Conducted individual and group therapy with men and women with a history of trauma

Grady Health System Inpatient Services

Supervisor: Nadine Kaslow, Ph.D.

- Led therapeutic groups on short- and long-term adult psychiatric inpatient units
- Administered psychological testing; provided consultation to psychiatry residents

Fulton County Jail Competence Restoration Unit

Supervisor: Glenn Egan, Ph.D.

- Performed court-ordered competence to stand trial & criminal responsibility evaluations
- Assisted with implementation of competence restoration program within jail setting
